Blue Stained Pavement...

Jacqueline Duca

Helpless. Alone. Misunderstood.
Once useful and important.
Once able to create smiles.
Once loved by the most important of people.
Now, forgotten.
Murdured. Lifeless. Gone.
Its spilled guts is but a nuisance to clean up,
Its glorious clothes tainted forever,
Left only to be thrown out.

Today marks the cruel, bitter end...
The death of the magnificent, majestic Blue Crayon
Murdured on the hot summer pavement.
